Teen dating abuse is a pattern of physically, sexually, verbally, and/or emotionally abusive or controlling behavior in a dating relationship.

Warning signs someone may be experiencing abuse: ♦

- Their partner calls them names or puts them down in front of others.
- Their partner gets extremely jealous when they talk to other people.
- They apologize for their partner's behavior and make excuses for it.
- They frequently cancel plans at the last minute for reasons that sound untrue or they give up things they used to enjoy doing.
- Their partner is always checking up, calling or texting and demanding to know who they're with and where they've been.
- They're constantly worried about upsetting their partner or making them angry.
- Their weight, appearance or grades have changed dramatically.
- They have injuries they can't explain or the explanations they give don't make sense.

Warning signs from someone who may be an abuser: ♦♦

- They check their partner's cell phones, emails or social networks without permission.
- They are extremely jealous or insecure, and have mood swings.
- They constantly put their partner down.
- They have an explosive temper and constantly make false accusations.
- They isolate partner from family and friends.
- They are physically violent.
- They are possessive.
- They pressure partner to have sex.
